

Pankaj Kumar Singh

It gives us immense pleasure to confer upon you in the NAPSWI Scroll of Appreciation. The NAPSWI feels proud and privileged to claim you as one of our most distinguished practitioners.

Born on July 22, 1972 in the family of academic background, Mr Pankaj Kumar Singh has obtained his Master's in Social work from Lucknow University in 1995. Having the passion towards professional social work, he started his career as field level worker with Department of Social and Preventive Medicine, KG Medical College, Lucknow and moved with Department of Pediatrics as research personnel to explore issues related to care of mothers and children. Later in 2003, he joined as Medical Social Worker, and is now working as Medical Social Service Officer, Deptt. of Critical Care Medicine, SGPGIMS, Lucknow. He has established a good network with social work professionals across the country. He has been founder member of All India Association of Medical Social Work Professionals (AIAMSWP) following the concerns of professional Social Workers to cater to the need of having an organization at the national level. Since 2009, he is serving as Zonal Secretary. With efforts of the AIAMSWP, Medical Social workers are receiving due recognition in the system.

He has written two books on Medical social work as part of his experiential journey, namely Chikitsalaya mein Samaj Karya- Ek Parichaya and Social Work in Hospital Setting: Helping Profession. He is also teaching in College of Nursing as part time Guest faculty. He has a vision to create a strong platform to bring all the professional social workers working in the field of medical and psychiatric social work together.

NAPSWI, at the 7th Indian Social Work Congress 2019 held at Department of Social Work Lucknow confers the NAPSWI Young Achiever Award to you Sir. This honour is conferred to a young Social Work Professional who has a positive vision, innovative ideas and outstanding contribution to social work profession.
